Sat. a.m.

Dear Mother, - I'm being bad and staying away from chapel this a.m. so I'm going to atone by writing a short letter to you. Helen is studying German auxiliaries out loud so I may not be able to say things straight.

I am all ready to start for Mrs. Bennett's with the exception of attending two classes and a little Botany work that I must do - a drawing of the hickory bud.

I am taking my red duds + graduating dress, ~~my~~ all over embroidery waist and my suit coat in the suit-case, and wearing my blue waist, shirt + the long coat +, as it's raining, rubbers, umbrella + my blue hat.

Now, as usual, I'll give a chronological account of my doings. Thurs. was as usual - that night I had so much work that I studied till 12 and yesterday a.m.

Grampy Stone started chopping kindling wood about six right under our windows. The morning before, he telephoned long & loud a little before six & this a.m. the Milk Man crushed a lot of bottles at 5:30. I get so ripping mad that anything like that can awaken me, but madness doesn't do any good 'tall. Yesterday, I got stung for a recitation in every class but German; then at 4:20 there was a Stud. Gov't meeting - the association 11th birthday; many old St. J. presidents were back, and a rep. from Smith & one from Mt. Holyoke were there. The whole meeting was very stirring. Then I stayed to dinner with Mary Rosa and danced a little after dinner. C.H. was very exciting with all the Big Bugs floating round. Then I came home, studied till 11:30 took a bath, slept, arose at 7:00 and here I am. Must go to Math.

Love to everyone,
Janet.
